

Lodging and Meals at the 16th Sinkhole Conference

Lodging at the Sheraton Old San Juan Hotel

The 16th Sinkhole Conference will be at the beautiful Sheraton Old San Juan. We have arranged for a special discount rate of $179/night for the conference. We urge you to take advantage of this rate and the convenience of staying at the conference, in the heart of historic and romantic Old San Juan. Traffic and parking in San Juan can be difficult, and you will enjoy the convenience of hassle-free and excellent accommodations by staying with your colleagues at the Sheraton Old San Juan (make sure you reserve your room at the “Sheraton Old San Juan” and not at the other Sheraton Hotel in the city).

The Sheraton Old San Juan is located on the idyllic waterfront, just a few moments from the docking point of grand cruise ships, and just steps away from world-class shopping, dining and entertainment. A myriad of restaurants, art galleries, museums and upscale stores will suit any taste. Concierge service is available for anyone wanting to take special excursions during their visit, offering many choices for both families and individuals.

For general information about the hotel, visit <https://www.sheratonoldsanjuan.com/>. To reserve your room, either call the hotel’s Reservations Department at (787) 289-1927 or email them at reservations@sheratonoldsanjuan.com and request a room blocked under NCKRI SINKHOLE CONFERENCE. We will soon post a link where you can register on-line directly with the hotel under our discount rate.

Meals at The Sinkhole Conference

You may have noticed that registration prices for The Sinkhole Conference are a little higher than in past years. One of the reasons is that they include your breakfasts and lunches, in addition to the usual coffee breaks, receptions, and banquet. As a result, your overall cost of attending will be about the same as in previous years. This arrangement also allowed us to get this fabulous location and conference center at an affordable price, and gives you more opportunities to visit with your fellow conference attendees, which gives you greater value for your registration fees. And remember, since your breakfasts and lunches are included as part of your registration, this is all of more reason to stay at the Sheraton Old San Juan for the convenience, camaraderie, and to save money by not buying meals elsewhere.
